CONGRATULATING HOUSTON
ASTROS ON WINNING BERTH IN NATIONAL LEAGUE PLAYOFFS

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, there are some times on the floor that we cannot help but celebrate our hometown heroes. Let me simply, among the many heroes that we have and certainly those fighting for us around the world, be able to acknowledge our great team in Houston, the Houston Astros, the 2004 National League wild card winners.

We are delighted that in early September the Astros won 12 straight games to pull even in the race for the National League wild card. Yet somehow they still had another gear left in them and they became baseball's hottest team down the stretch. We congratulate Drayton McLane and all of his stars. We are glad that our friend Roger came on home.

The Astros won their final seven games of the regular season and nine of their last 10 to overcome Chicago and San Francisco in the race for the wild card.

From August 14 to the end of the regular season, the Astros had a Major League best 36-10 record. The Astros currently have an amazing 18-game home winning streak, the longest such streak in baseball in the last 10 years. While this streak is extraordinary, it is not hard to see why the Astros do well at home. This year, the Astros had a franchise record for attendance with over 3 million fans coming to watch baseball in the beautiful Minute Maid Park in my own 18th congressional district. Clearly, the great fans of Houston are excited. Go Astros today, Saturday, and tomorrow. And we are looking forward to the World Series, maybe not in Houston but certainly our Astros playing the game. We are happy. Congratulations to the Houston Astros.

I rise today to honor my hometown baseball team, the Houston Astros, the 2004 National League Wild Card winners. Since 1975 the Astros have been a part of the heart and soul of the Houston community. There have been many great players in the history of the Astros. Hall of fame players like the early greats Nelly Fox and Eddie Mathews who made baseball our national pastime. Players like the great Joe Morgan who finished as one of the best second basemen of all time. Of course we all know about the legendary Nolan Ryan, baseball's all time strikeout king. Among these Astros greats is my good friend Enos Cabell who played third base over eight seasons with the Astros. At six foot five inches tall they aptly called him 'Big E' and today he is
